

Appel d'air

The image shows the text 'Appel d'air' in a blue, cursive script. The word 'Appel' is written in a standard cursive style, while 'd'air' is written in a more fluid, connected cursive. Above the letter 'i' in 'air', there is a stylized sunburst icon consisting of a central orange circle with several light blue rays extending outwards. The entire text and icon are enclosed within a dark blue, hand-drawn rectangular outline that is slightly tilted and has a rough, sketchy appearance.
